At its meeting held July 5, 2005, the Board took the following action:

71-B

Paul Higa, Chief Probation Officer, responded to questions posed by the Board regarding warrants out for parole violators and the number of probationers in Los Angeles County.

After discussion, Supervisor Antonovich requested the Chief Probation Officer to report back to the Board within two weeks on the protocol that can be used to make the Probation Department's Adult Probation System and the Countywide Warrants System compatible to produce an accurate number of warrants for persons on probation or parole and the Department's action plan to address the issue.
